OF DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES. By the Author of the Republic of the United States, &c.

THIS important work is now in press, the first volume of which will be issued early in the autumn of 1554.

The publication of this work will be continued by the subscribers; and in due time they will publish in the several States a complete list of agents, who will be prepared to furnish copies promptly in every part of the Union.

That the author may have ample time to prepare his work according to his views of completeness; that the publishers may be enabled to issue the numbers with promptness and at stated periods, thereby protecting the interest of their agents, the following arrangement is announced in the full confidence that it will prove acceptable to all, viz: To stereotype the next six numbers, making ten in all, thus completing the first volume before any more are published.

The numbers will then be issued monthly, without interruption, to the end. Those who prefer the volume bound will be accommodated without extra charge for binding; and the numbers already published, from one to four, will be taken in part pay, if not injured, at their full cost to subscribers.

In announcing this unavoidable delay for a few months, the publishers are not unmindful of the earnest desire of many speedily to possess the work. The necessity of accommodating the author, whose labors are incessant, will appear obvious to all without particular explanation.

WASHINGTON, March 14, 1854.

We have had Kidder's Gas Regulator in use in our respective stores for several months past, and take pleasure in recommending it to the gas consuming public as accomplishing perfectly the ends for which it was designed. It regulates the burning of the gas, and with as good a light saves us a handsome per-centage upon our monthly bills.

RECOMMENDATIONS.
U. S. NAVY YARD, GOSPORT, VA.,

January 20, 1854.

To C. E. Detmold, President N. J. Zinc Co., N. Y.

Sin: A series of experiments conducted by me, with the utmost care, during the past three years, upon all the various paints and artificial preparations for the preservation of timber, have led me to the important discovery that the White Zinc Paint, manufactured by the New Jersey Zinc Company, serves as a perfect protection against the ravages of the marine worm, and the formation of barnacles, whilst no other paint or preparation of any kind combines the same protective effect.

I am now preparing a full report on this important subject to the Bureaus of Yards and Docks, at Washington, and shall send with it a complete series of specimens of wood and metal plates, which were covered with the different paints and preparations, and then exposed alike for an entire season, in salt water, opposite this navy yard; all of which illustrates, in the most striking manner, the invaluable qualities and decided superiority of your White Zinc Paint over all other kinds paints, especially for marine purposes.

You are at liberty to give full publicity to the above stated facts, which are of too much importance to be kept from the naval and commercial world. I am, respectfully, your obedient servant, IAMES JARVIS, Inspector U. S. Navy Yard, Gosport, Va.

PROSPECTUS.

"WASHINGTON SENTINEL." I PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washing ton, in September, a political newspaper, under the name of the WASHINGTON SENTINEL.

NEL.

In doing so, it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain, and the policy it will advocate.

It will support cordially and earnestly the principles of the Democratic party of the United States. it does not propose to be the organ of any Department of the Government, except in so far as an independent maintenance of the doctrines of that party may represent its opinions and express its views.

party may represent its opinions and express its views.

It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will seek public support by the bold avowal of the sentiments which are common to the genuine Democracy of the Union, and by the condemnation of all such as may conflict with them, from whatever quarter they may come. It will seek to be (and it will endeavor to deserve the title) the organ of the Democratic party of the United States.

States.

The Sentinel will maintain, as a fundamental truth of that great party, that the States formed the Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which, also, they created the Federal Government, and delegated to it, as their common agent, the powers expressly specified in it, with an explicit reservation of all others to the States, or to their separate governments. The exercise of any powers beyond these thus delegated, is, therefore, an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of their own creation.

The Sentinel will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the Constitution—and thus by sedulously guarding the latter, it will the more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former.

With regard to the exercise of the powers of the and perpetuate the former.

With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Federal Government, the Sentinel will take as the principles of its action, that Congress shall exercise no power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair interpretation of its language and spirit; and that it shall not seek to attain indirectly an object through the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power. In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly granted, and all granted powers must be used for no purpose, except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the

In respect to the internal administration of the Government, the Sentimet, will sustain the settled policy of the Democratic party. It will labor to inculcate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic in ternal policy:—that this Government will best promote the freedom and prosperity of the people of the States, by being less ambitious to exercise power, and more anxious to preserve liberty; and by leaving to the individual States the management of all their domestic concerns—while it contents itself with guarding the confederacy from external violence, and directing the foreign policy of the country to the promotion of the common interests, and defence of the common rights, and honor of the States composing it. In respect to the internal administration of the

The Sentinel will advocate such a progressive foreign policy as will suit itself to the exigencies, and correspond with the expanding interests of the country. That policy should be energetic and decided; but should temper firmness with liberality and make its highest ends consist with the strictest principles of justice. The real interests of the country, upon each occasion demanding attention, will be its guide in the course the Sentinel will pursue. The national policy of the world in this age is weakness of some of the nations of the Old World, and the arabitious restlessness of others, a common motive to colonial extension has developed iself. Our settled determination to repel interference Our settled determination to repel interference from abroad with our domestic concerns, will prompt us to avoid it in the affairs of other countries, unless by their foreign or colonial policy our peace should be threatened, our security endangered, or our interests invaded. For when the selfish interests of other nations prompt a foreign or colonial policy which infringes upon our rights, and places in the pathway of our commerce a dangerous and unfriendly rival, such a policy must be resisted by remonstrance, and, if need be, by war.

Our foreign policy should, indeed, be defensive; but to be properly defensive, it must sometimes be apparently aggressive. Our administration should be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world is full of important movements, commercial and political, deeply concerning American trade and American power. It is time we had an American foreign policy. We must have it. We cannot avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and a greater stake in the world and its destiny, than every other people. We occupy the best portion of a continent, with no neighbors but a colony, and a worn-out, anarchical despotism. We are the only people whose own land, without colonial defendencies, is washed by the two great oceans of the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life, and to human progress—our mineral and manufacturing resources more vast—our facilities and capacity for internal and foreign commerce more extended than those of any other people living under one government. A continent, to a great extent, unexplored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth is at our feet. European trade seeks the great East government. A continent, to a great extent, unexplored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth is at our feet. European trade seeks the great East through avenues which are at our doors, or must be made through our own limits. Europe, Asia, Africa, and the isles of the sea, lying all around us, look to us as the rising power, through the agency of whose example, and ever widening and extending, though peaceful influences, the blessings of liberty, civilization, and religion, are destined to triumph over the barbarism and superstition of the millions of the world. And shall such a people refuse to lay hold upon their destiny, and act upon the high mission to which it is called?
A mission so full of hope, though so laden with responsibility, which, if properly directed, must make our confederacy the harbinger of peace to the world, as well as the peaceful arbiter of its destiny.

The SENTINEL will, therefore, advocate a bold The SENTINEL will, therefore, advocate a bold and earnest foreign policy, such as the condition of the country demands; but it will advocate it under the flag of the country—nowhere else. Its foreign policy must be consistent with the spotless honor and unimpeachable good faith of the country. To be respectable at home and abroad, and to be great in the eyes of the world, it must ask for nothing but what is right, and submit to nothing that is wrong. It must be liberal and magnanimous to the rights of others, and firm and immoveable in insisting on its own. It must, in fine, be true to its own interests, rights, and honor—it cannot then be false to those of other nations.

Such then, is the chart by which we shall be Such, then, is the chart by which we shall be guided. Independent and free, we shall endeavor to be honest and truthful. The true friends of democratic principles we shall cordially support and defend. Its enemies in the field or in ambush we shall oppose, and on all proper occasions denounce.

To our future brethren of the press we extend the hand of friendly greeting. The Scattnel is the rivel of no press of its own party—the personal energy of none of the other. The present Democratic A dministration has our The present Democratic A aministration has our best wishes for its success in the establishment of the great principles upon which it came into power; and in its honest labors to attain such an end it will find the Sentinel its friend and condition.

THE PARQUIER WHITE SULPHUR Springs, known in the list of post offices as warrenton Springs, will be opened for visitors on the 10th of June. Extensive improvements have been made since the last season. The entire bedbeen made since the last season. The entire bedding of the establishment has been renewed, and the farniture of the dining and other rooms extensively improved. Gas-works have been erected; the light to be furnished from rosin oil. Numerous other expenses have been incurred for the comfort and accommodation of guests. These, and the increased cost of provisions of all kinds, demand some increase in the rates of board, which will be: For the season, ending 1st of October, $55; for three months, $75; for two months, $65; one month, $36; for two weeks, $20; for one week, $11; per day, $2; for dinner, 75 cents; breakfast, supper, or night's lodging, 50 cents. Colored servants, and children under 12 years, half price. White servants, three-fourths of full price. No charge for children under two years of age. Horses, 50 cents per day, or $10 per month.

The railroad cars leave Alexandria at 7 o'clock in the morning, and in two hours arrive at Bealeton, where conveyances will take passengers over a good summer road, between eight and nine miles to the springs. The cars, also, will leave Alexandria at 3 p. m., for Warrenton, and stages will take passengers the same evening to the springs by a macadamized road, six and a half miles. From the south and the west, the cars leave Staunton and Richmond in the morning at about 6 o'clock, and may get to the Springs via Gordonsville and Bealeton, to dinner; thus affording two daily lines to Alexandria, and a daily line to Gordonsville, Richmond, and Staunton.

The superintendence of the establishment has been placed under the control of the subscriber, whose experience in Lowell, Boston, and Portsmouth, New Hampshire, entitles him to hope he will be able to give general satisfaction. He will certainly try to do so
